The Germans have suffered further their losses at the hands of the French between the Hem wood and the river Somme, losing three lines of their trenches and 120 prisoners and ten machine guns, and also in the Verdun sector, where the French made progress south of the Thiaumont road and captured five machine guns and took some houses in the western part of the village of Mussy.

Following a heavy bombardment of the British positions, the Germans launched violent infantry attacks north and northeast of Pozieres, and at two places succeeded in entering the British trenches. Their success was not long-lived, for the British soon drove them out, inflicting heavy casualties on them.

Amid continuous heavy rains which have turned the country into a quagmire, the Russians are keeping up their strong offensive against the Teutons in northern Galicia and have pushed forward their lines against them in the Serech and Grabek river regions.

Also along the Stokhod river, in Volhynia, near the town of Deserets, the Russians have driven the Teutons from their trenches and occupied them, taking twelve officers and 260 men prisoners. Constantinople reports a series of gains for the Turks fighting against the Russians. The Turks admit at least one of the claims—that the Russians have been forced to retire under pressure to the region east of Kermanshah. An attack by the Russians north of Bukan on the Persian front was put down with heavy losses to the Russians, according to Constantinople and in Turkish Armenia, and it is said the Russians have been put to flight and positions retaken which the Russians had previously captured. The latest reports concerning the attack of the Turks against the British forces with the Suez canal, their ships and the Ottoman forces met with a serious offensive.

They have now been cleared from the Kaki-Umbat basin. Violent fighting is in progress between the Austrians and Italians on various sectors especially around the Gorizia bridgehead, on the Deberke plateau and on the lower Isonzo river. Near Mont Sabino and Monte San Michele the Italians captured an Austrian position.
